

Wednesday, November 13th, An Evening With

BeauSoleil avec Michael Doucet

Sponsored by Triangle Folk Music Society & Triangle Area Cajun/Zydeco Association

After thirty or so years in the game, BeauSoleil are hands down America's most popular Cajun group. To prove it, these guys have a for real Grammy. If that's not enough, A Prairie Home Companion's Garrison Keillor has dubbed them "the best Cajun band in the world".

BeauSoleil preserve and promote the rich Louisiana Cajun musical tradition and spice it up further with a taste of zydeco, New Orleans jazz, Tex-Mex, country, blues and more. What makes good gumbo makes good music!

If you can't wait 'til the show, BeauSoleil's latest recordings are, "Looking Back Tomorrow- BeauSoleil Live" on the Rhino label, and "The Best of the Crawfish Years 1985-1991" on Rounder.

For way less than would get you down to Lafayette, you can two-step down to this high-spirited show. Dance instruction starts at 8PM and the concert kicks in at 8:30 PM. You may dance during the show!
